

Period Product Pass Rules

Weekly: 7-Day Pass	Weekly: 35-Day Pass
10 Single trips between 2 pre-chosen stations	44 Single trips between 2 pre-chosen stations
If you are a weekly commuter it gives you two trips per day, Monday to Friday. If you do not use all 10 trips between Mondays to Fridays you still have another two days left from the original 7 days in which to use the trips	The same rules apply as for the 7-Day Pass, just over a longer period
Must start using it within 7 days of buying it	Must start using it within 7 days of buying it
If you buy it on Thursday you can start using it e.g. on the following Monday	If you buy it on Thursday you can start using it e.g. on the following Monday
Valid from day of first use + 6 more operating days	Valid from day of first use + 34 more operating days
Gautrain operates 7 days per week, 365 days per year and you can start using your pass on any day of the week, not necessarily on a Monday	The same rules apply as for the 7-Day Pass, just over a longer period
Will expire 7 days after first use, even if you have not used all 10 trips.	Will expire 35 days after first use, even if you have not used all 44 trips.
This is part of the Period Product Pass rules	This is part of the Period Product Pass rules
Can use all 10 trips in one day or over 7 days	Can use all 44 trips in one day or over 35 days

As per the Period Product Pass Rules, Unused trips are NOT refundable.

